

Keith Losoya, Executive Director

As executive director of CSBA, Keith is accountable for general operations and programmatic implementations.

Keith is also the founder of three small businesses in the waste management, software development and wireless services industries. For the past 10 years Keith has been committed himself to smart-growth and economic development in Baltimore's collection of diverse communities as the President of the Federal Hill Neighborhood Association, a board member of Federal Hill Main Streets, The Preservation Society, Historic Districts Council and Mayors Inner Harbor Advisory Committee.

He received his B.A. in Political Science from Texas Tech University.